

Political Acumen is essential throughout your organization. You need ALL staff to be politically astute to be effective.

The Public Sector Leader

How's Your Political Acumen?

www.thepublicsectorleader.ca

The Public Sector Leader offers online, mentoring programs designed to explore the unwritten protocols and grey areas that leaders in today's public service need to navigate in an environment of increasingly centralized decision making, a stronger political service, permanent campaigning, big data and a 24/7 news cycle. POLITICAL ACUMEN ACCELERATOR is our signature mentoring program. Using an interactive, storytelling format, our Master Mentors share experiences and advice on how to develop and fine tune this important competency to help them overcome many of the complex challenges that public sector leaders face today across all orders of government.

Learn from 42 Master Mentors who have been there . . .

Our Master Mentors on faculty are former & current Federal, Municipal & Provincial Politicians, Public Servants, Academics and Media Experts;. Each live module begins with a panel conversation between 3 Master Mentors; the panel style is conversational and audience interactive using story telling as a means of demonstrating concepts and reinforcing behaviours.

Here's What our IPSL Alumni Are saying about the Programs . . .

“ My team attended as a group which meant we were able to discuss our learnings after each session. As well as taking full advantage of the excellent materials in the Resource Room, this approach added another layer of value to the program and allowed us to sharpen our skills even further. We continue to remind each other of advice we heard in the sessions.”

“ I've been participating in this course and just wanted to pass on how excellent I think it is. This is the kind of highly practical and relevant real world advice that is missing from much management training. I appreciate how finely tuned the material is to the challenge of executive leadership in the public service. The examples are great. Thank you and keep it coming”
